

Red Molly

In a July evening in 2004, at the Falcon Ridge Folk Festival, Laurie MacAllister, Abbie Gardner and Carolann Solebello harmonized for the very first time. As they sang their campmates off to sleep, they knew they had stumbled into something extraordinary. Audiences seem to agree. Since that summer night, Red Molly has consistently brought concert-goers to their feet with stunning three-part harmonies, crisp musicianship and a warm, engaging stage presence. These ladies have a lot of fun on stage, and it's contagious, as evidenced by their devoted and ever-widening national fan base.

The magic of Red Molly stems partly from the richness and diversity of each member's "pre-Molly" experiences. Laurie (vocals, bass, banjo, guitar) left a career in psychology to pursue her love of singing. Abbie (vocals, Dobro, guitar) has a background in jazz, bluegrass, classical and a cappella music. Carolann (vocals, guitar, bass) spent several years as a professional theater actor before turning to music.
